

Love-to-Learn in Summer

is available for students Pre-K through 3rd Grade

- ★ I will review and reinforce skills your child finished in his/her current grade
  - ★ Introduce new concepts for the coming school year.
  - ★ Offer enrichment activities and strategies in reading, writing, and math.
  - ★ Summer learning is successful because it offers individualized, one-on-one instruction, and possibly small groups.
  - ★ My programs will be geared to the needs of each student helping them to build their academic skills.
- ❖ Mrs. Debbi Gentile offers either private sessions $30.00 per hour /small groups (priced according to the number of students) throughout the summer.
  - ❖ I have a flexible schedule and lots of great ideas to accommodate your child with what serves them best.

For more information and to discuss your child's needs return this form to Mrs. Debbi Gentile at SJRS or contact me by email at dgentile@sjrs.org

INCOMING 1ST & 2ND GRADERS

Keep your child's skills sharp this summer! Children will enjoy a day that begins with reading and math review and enrichment. We have designed a program to allow students to work with teachers in small group centers. After lunchtime, students will work in a more relaxed setting and enjoy "game-like" learning by exploring art, music, literacy and science. We have a fantastic time, just ask our former students. Join us for a fun-filled week of learning, please complete the registration form by June 13th, 2017

“HEROES” Book Honors Ensign John R. Elliott

Third-graders and students from the SJRS Book Project include designated driving message

SOMERS POINT, NJ (March 13, 2017) – Bill and Muriel Elliott, founders of the John R. Elliott HERO Campaign for Designated Drivers, were honored guests of Sylvia McFadden’s third-grade class and students from the SJRS Book Project at St. Joseph Regional School in Somers Point. The class presented a student portrait of their son, Ensign John R. Elliott and a copy of the students’ newly published book, Jersey Shore Heroes. The book, which is on sale at the Shore Medical Center Gift Shop as a fundraiser for the Shore Cancer Center in Somers Point, includes John’s story and the creation of the HERO Campaign in his memory. Books can also be ordered directly at Read4McFadden@gmail.com.
